

I.C.G. PARTICIPATES IN AMTRAK'S NATIONAL TRAIN DAY FESTIVITES: WASHINGTON D.C. AND LOS ANGELES

On May 8, 2010, Amtrak hosted free events in four of its gateway stations: Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, Los Angeles, and Chicago. I.C.G. participated in the day's celebrations in Los Angeles and Washington D.C.'s Union Train Stations onboard the Pacific Surfliner's Business Class Car and the Coast Starlight's Pacific Parlour Car. As part of National Train Day, I.C.G.'s content, hardware, and solutions were available for viewing by many train aficionados. The people's response to WiFi Service and video content onboard Pacific Surfliners, Coast Starlight and Auto Trains was extraordinary. Thanks to all involved, we had a great turnout and received positive feedback from attendees, Amtrak personnel and management teams.
